

God's love is with us
Now and forever.

'Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

Matthew 28 NRSV

Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands, he blessed them. While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and they were continually in the temple blessing God.

Luke 24 NRSV

Ascended Lord Jesus Christ,
Like the first disciples,
help us to follow you in our work and play,
to know that we are loved and to show love, as you did, with others everywhere
Amen

Thinkabouts:

What did Jesus mean by 'making disciples'?

When might the 'end of the age' be?

Jesus was carried up to heaven, how might that have happened?

Let's wonder:

Why do you think that the disciples were full of joy and praise?

God's love is with us
Now and forever.
